7. Who do we share your personal information with and why?

We may need to share relevant personal information with other healthcare organisations. For example, we may share your information for healthcare purposes with health authorities such as Jersey Health Department, Social Security Department, NHS UK, Out of Hours Service, other general practitioners (GPs), ambulance services, private consultants, primary or secondary care service providers, etc. We will also share information with other parts of the Jersey Health Department and those contracted to provide services to the Health Department in order to support your healthcare needs.

We may need to share information from your health records with other non-Health Department organisations from which you elect to or are also receiving care from, such as Social Services, private consultants, secondary care providers or private care homes. However, we will not disclose any health information to third parties without your explicit consent unless there are circumstances, such as when the health or safety of others is at risk or where current legislation permits or requires it.

There are occasions where the Practice may be required by law to share information provided to us with other bodies responsible for auditing or administering public funds, in order to prevent and detect fraud.

There may also be situations where we are under a duty to share your information, due to a legal requirement. This includes, but is not limited to, disclosure under a court order, sharing with the Jersey Primary Care Governance Team for inspection purposes, the police for the prevention or detection of crime or where there is an overriding public interest to prevent abuse or serious harm to others and other public bodies (e.g. Social Security for the misuse of public funds in order to prevent and detect fraud).

For any request to transfer your data internationally outside Jersey or the UK/EU, we will make sure that an adequate level of protection is satisfied before the transfer.

The Practice is required to protect your personal information, inform you of how your personal information will be used, and allow you to decide if and how your personal information can be shared. Personal information you provide to the Practice in confidence will only be used for the purposes explained to you and to which you have consented. Unless, there are exceptional circumstances, such as when the health or safety of others is at risk, where the law requires it or there is an overriding public interest to do so. Where there is cause to do this, the Practice will always do its best to notify you of this sharing.

8. How we maintain your records?

Your personal information is held in both paper and electronic forms for specified periods of time as set out in the Information Governance Alliance Records Management Code of Practice for Health and Social Care. Whilst this is UK legislation for NHS Providers, it is used in Jersey as a 'Best Practice Solution' in the void of our own similar procedures.

We hold and process your information in accordance with the Data Protection (Jersey) Law 2018 and where appropriate the General Data Protection Regulation. In addition, everyone working for our Practice must comply with the Contractual Duty of Confidentiality and various national and professional standards and requirements.

We have a duty to:

- maintain full and accurate records of the care we provide to you;
- keep records about you confidential and secure;
- provide information in a format that is accessible to you.

Use of Email/SMS Text/Other Electronic Communications:

Some services in the Practice provide the option to communicate with patients via email, SMS text or other electronic communications. Please be aware that the Practice cannot guarantee the security of this information whilst in transit, and by requesting this service you accept this risk.

9. What are your rights?

If we need to use your personal information for any reasons beyond those stated above, we will discuss this with you and ask for your explicit consent. The Data Protection (Jersey) Law 2018 gives you certain rights, including the right to:

- Request access to the personal data we hold about you, e.g. in health records. The way in which you can access your own health records is further explained in our "patient access to medical records policy and request form" which is on our website: [Insert Website]
- Request the correction of inaccurate or incomplete information recorded in our health records, subject to certain safeguards.
- Refuse/withdraw consent to the sharing of your health records: Under the Data Protection (Jersey) Law 2018, we are authorised for the purposes of 'Employment and Social Fields' (Schedule 2, Part 2, Article 8) 'Medical Purposes' (Schedule 2, Part 2, Article 15) and 'Public Health' (Schedule 2, Part 2, Article 16). Your consent will only be required if we intend to share your health records beyond these purposes, as explained above (e.g. research). Any consent form you will be asked to sign will give you the option to 'refuse' consent and will explain how you can 'withdraw' any given consent at a later time. The consent form will also warn you about the possible consequences of such refusal/withdrawal.
- Request your personal information to be transferred to other providers on certain occasions.

- Object to the use of your personal information: In certain circumstances, you may also have the right to 'object' to the processing (i.e. sharing) of your information where the sharing would be for a purpose beyond your care and treatment (e.g. as part of a local data sharing initiative).
